

For quite some time, I have been realizing a clear connection between Donald's structuralistic collagraph prints and the Steampunk movement and its interest in things mechanical. Attending a meeting of the Steampunk Artists and Enthusiasts was wll worth it. I met several fellow members from the on-line community . Talking to Steve was extremely interesting and helpful in understanding the fascinating relations between the Victorian times and today.